

Ruddock Creek Compared to River Jordan

	Ruddock Creek	River Jordan
Deposit Type:	Sedex-Type	Sedex-Type
Grades:	6.77% Zn, 1.38 Pb	5.6% Zn, 5.1% Pb, and 1.1 oz/t Ag
Resource:	6.2 m/t measured 6.6 m/t inferred	2.8 m/t historical, 33.0 m/t of REE-bearing carbonatite
43-101 Compliant:	yes	no
Total Drilling:	238,000 feet plus	16,000 feet
Number of drill holes:	375	11
Potential:		high
Access:	road, helicopter	helicopter
Power	none	hydro power
Distance to Major roads:	50 km.	15 km.
Distance to Major Railroad	50 km.	15 km.
Distance to major Town:	50 km.	15 km.
Lodging:	Camp	local housing
Ownership percentage	48/52	100 %
Underling Royalty:	1%	none
Special Rights:	Teck has first rights to purchase ore	none

The Ruddock Creek property is located about 40 miles Northwest of the River Jordan claim group. Imperial Metals owns 48%. Mitsui [30%], Itochu [20%], and Jogmeg [2%] purchased their 52% for $20 million dollars. An employee from Imperial Metals claims the mineralized rocks found at River Jordan are identical to Ruddock Creek.